I-405 Contract Firewall Principles

1. General Engineering Consultants (GEC) can participate in Segment Preliminary Design (PD) contracts, but not in Design-Build Contracts.
2. GEC subs can participate in Segment PD contracts and On-Call contracts, but not in Design-Build Contracts.
3. Preliminary Design Consultants (prime or sub) will not be allowed to participate in a D-B contract for any segment they've done PD work on, but may participate in D-B for other corridor segments.
4. Parent and subsidiary companies participating in GEC Joint Ventures (JV) are precluded from D-B contracts on any segment
5. Parent and subsidiary companies participating in PD Joint Ventures are precluded from D-B contracts on any segment they've done PD work on
